FROM: Richard T. Trapizona

There are some question's regarding conditional use of the property at 695 Glen Mitchell Road, to the of Board of Commissioners and you, per my email to that I originally sent to you.

Does Louis Trapizona have the right to request conditional use of property? Due to the fact that he is not the legal owner.

When my Father, Louis P. Trapizona, passed away in June of 1999, 4 days before his death a deed was was created and Michael, Caroline and Paul Trapizona were the names that were put on the deed that they were the new owners of the property. Also, it needs to be noted that my father had supposedly had no Will or was an estate ever opened in his name to finalize his estates, assets, etc.

Deed information for Lot and Block 422-E-199 recorded 7-22-99

Attorney Vince Restauri also did a deed for an un-subdivided parcel of property with no lot or block number, I have all document's for review.

I have informed you in the past the back building in the back if the property has been rented throughout the past 20 years by the following businesses, Honda of American, Sewickley car store and Veterans Plumbing(currently).

Last time I checked with state it still shows that my father, Louis P. Trapizona, as the owner of Louie & Sons.

Attorney John D'Onofrio was trying to open an estate to make everything legal but it was stop by Louis J. Trapizona, when it came to account for my father's assets, etc. of at the time of my father's death.

Note: All the Attorney's that Louis J. Trapizona has used to avoid opening an estate have been Vince Restauri, John Studeny, Wayne Deluca, John D'Onofrio and now Adam Zinsser and none of them have had any success due to the way the fake deeds and estate has been handled.

If you have any questions.

Please advise.
